

Stingers' Hinse earns Lafleur Award

Concordia Stingers captain Olivier Hinse was presented the Guy Lafleur Award of Excellence at a press conference hosted by the Montreal Canadiens at the Bell Centre last week.

The award is presented annually to a Quebec university hockey player who has excelled in athletics and academics and shown exceptional leadership. The award comes with a $6,000 scholarship spread over a three-year period.

Hinse was selected by a committee made up of representatives from the media, the hockey community and the field of education.

Hinse enjoyed phenomenal success on and off the ice in 2014-15. He was presented the Dr. Randy Gregg Award as the Canadian university men's hockey player who best combines athletics, academics and community service at the CIS All-Canadian Gala in March. It is the first time in Concordia men's hockey history that a member of the Stingers earns this prestigious award. It is only the second time a player from a Quebec-based university is the recipient.

Hinse was also named Concordia's Male Athlete of the Year in April.

On the ice Hinse, a third-year centre from Sherbrooke, Que., was one of the most prolific scorers in the country, tying for the OUA lead and finishing second in CIS with 18 goals in 26 league games.

Four of those markers came shorthanded, the most by any player in the nation, and he also added 13 assists to finish 10th in OUA scoring with 31 points.

He was named an assistant captain for the 2012-13 season, becoming the youngest player in school history to earn an A on his sweater, and was named the Stingers captain for the 2014-15 campaign.

When he's not on the ice, Hinse is a leader in both the community and the classroom. He maintains a 3.09 GPA in Child Studies and has been actively involved in several community initiatives including volunteering as an assistant coach for a local junior AAA hockey team, coaching at Stingers hockey schools, participating in the Stingers community skating party, taking part in the Centraide Walk and helping at L'Abri en Ville unloading crates of fruit that are sold to help fund the integration of mentally challenged adults into the community.

Registration is now underway for the 36th annual Côte St. Luc Golf Classic, which will take place on Tuesday, July 14 at Meadowbrook Golf Course. The title sponsor is Mark Routtenberg and Freemark Apparel Brands and its Bench line of clothing. Routtenberg, a former minority owner of the Montreal Expos, is also honorary chair of the event and guest speaker. Special honoree is long-time community volunteer Ron Yarin. Golfers will have a chance to win a Mercedes-Benz as part of a hole-in-one contest sponsored by Sam Eltes of Silver Star Mercedes-Benz. There are two categories: Masters (aged 65 and over) and Eagle (64 and under). This will be a scramble format whereby the players decide which golfer hits the best shot off the tee and then others from the foursome play their next shot from that point. Play continues from hole to hole in the same fashion for the rest of the outing. Registration is open at the Côte St. Luc Parks and Recreation Department, 7500 Mackle Road (corner Parkhaven Avenue) Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. and at the Aquatic and Community Center daily from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

For further information, please contact Alvin Fishman at 514-485-6806 ext. 2012 or at afishman@cotesaintluc.org.
