NEWS AND EVENTS IN OUR CITY

By MIKE COHEN

ATTENTION HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS:

Hasbara Fellowships Canada is excited to announce the launch of its second #MyJewishIdentity New Media Contest! In partnership with NCSY, Torah High, and USY, and with the support of over 50 community partners from across the country, this contest will be open exclusively to Canadian high school students. To enter, students must explain why Israel is an integral part of their Jewish identity – whether it's a visual art piece, an op-ed, original song, short story, essay, TikTok video, Instagram reel, YouTube video, poem, Instagram carousel, or any form of new media. Submissions will be divided into two categories: written and visual. A winner and runner up will be selected from each category. The winning submissions will be awarded with two top prizes of $1,000 and two runner-up prizes of $360! We're excited to hear about your personal connection to our indigenous homeland! For contest guidelines and more details, please visit bit.ly/myjewishidentity2022. The submission deadline is April 27, 2022.

HOCKEY FOR BAYCREST:

The Scotiabank Pro-Am for Alzheimer's in Support of Baycrest is the largest hockey charity event in North America. Register today to play in this exciting two-day tournament featuring former hockey pros and hockey enthusiasts. Before the tournament gets underway, players take part in a festive draft night party where they eat, drink and mingle with the stars. All teams are guaranteed to play three games. The top two fundraising teams also get to play in the championship game. Participants can sign up as individuals or register a team. Either way, they are all one team vs. Alzheimer's, The event will take place at Scotiabank Pond in North York from May 12 to 14. Go to www.baycrestfoundation.com

TEEN FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM:

The Toronto-based Diller Teen Fellowship program is a year-long leadership training program for students in Grades 10 and 11 that provides a powerful and transformative extra-curricular experience, culminating in a three-week seminar in Israel in early summer. Diller Teen Fellows benefit from numerous opportunities to develop effective leadership skills; join a global network of Diller Fellowship peers from Israel and around the world; participate in a spring seminar in Toronto and a summer seminar in Israel; create and engage in meaningful Tikkun Olam/Social Justice activities; and deepen their Jewish identity. BDS ACTION:

Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center (FSWC) has welcomed the University of Toronto's decision to withhold funds from the Graduate Students' Union (GSU) over its financial support for the antisemitic Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) movement. According to a U of T press release, Vice-President and Provost Cheryl Regehr said the university will be withholding $10,918 in student fees from the GSU, the amount that would have been allocated to the BDS caucus. This decision comes after the Complaint and Resolution Council for Student Societies (CRCSS) ruled that the GSU must immediately cease using compulsory student fees to promote the antisemitic BDS movement, finding the student union's BDS caucus violated the school's Anti-Discrimination Policy by engaging in discrimination based on nationality. The CRCSS had upheld a complaint made by Jewish graduate student Chaim Katz, whose campaign against GSU was supported by B'nai Brith Canada.

HONEST REPORTING CANADA asks why Social Media giants clamped down on Russia but not on Iran's regime which is given a "free pass" to continue spewing hate.
