HELPFUL HINTS FOR THE JEWISH TRAVELLER

By MIKE COHEN

NEW YORK CITY'S JEWISH THEMES: New York's landmark historic Jewish neighborhood, the Lower East Side was once home to the world's largest Jewish community. Covering the area between Houston and Canal Streets east of the Bowery, this neighborhood is where New York's garment industry began. Today it is a bargain hunter's paradise, with great deals to be found on everything from souvenir tee shirts to menorahs, especially along Orchard Street in the neighborhood's center. The overall New York Jewish community in the metropolitan area has remained stable at 1.4 million people; the population of New York City is just below a million.

Indeed, the world-class museums and collections found throughout Manhattan are not to be missed. The historic synagogues should be toured. But in New York City, Jewish life is just a walk down the street. The Jewish Museum (www.thejewish-museum.org) at 1109 Fifth Ave. (northeast corner of 92nd St.) is dedicated to presenting the remarkable scope and diversity of Jewish culture. You can also visit the Jewish Community Center in Manhattan (www.jccmanhattan.org) at The Samuel Priest Rose Building (334 Amsterdam Avenue at West 76th Street). The Museum of Jewish Heritage - A Living Memorial to the Holocaust (<http://www.mjhnyc.org>) first opened its doors on September 15, 1997 at 36 Battery Place. The Museum differs from other institutions of memory by telling the story of the Holocaust from the perspective of those who experienced it.

DINING OUT: New York City is indeed the place to dine, with an endless array of choices to please your palate. Needless to say, there are no shortage of kosher restaurants here either. Morton's and China Grill both have significant Jewish connections.

Morton's 5th Avenue (www.mortons.com/newyork) is located in the heart of Midtown Manhattan (551 5th Avenue, at 45th Street). Not only was Morton's established by someone Jewish, namesake Arnie Morton, but the subsequent owner was Jewish as well – Allen J. Bernstein. The latter was credited with growing the chain during his 17 years at the helm. He passed away four years ago at the age of 65. Morton's is now owned by Houston-based Landry's Inc. Restaurants and Tilman Fertitta.

We enjoyed an absolutely outstanding dinner at Morton's. Service was superb.. A fresh loaf of bread, with whipped butter, arrived at the table as we began trying to decide what to order. While there were a lot of appealing appetizers, we opted instead for a chopped salad which was more than large enough to share. For the main course we chose what Morton's is known for. Two members of our party shared an eight ounce center-cut filet mignon while I favored the center-cut prime rib eye. Both of these items were cooked to perfection and literally cut like butter. As for the generous portions of sides, we shared the sour cream mashed potatoes and the hash brown potatoes. For dessert, they have a number of appealing specialties. We went with the Chocolate Molten Cake, served in a bowl covered with ice cream, whipped cream and sundae sauce. It is a good thing the three of us shared it because I do not know how one person can consume this decadent offering.

During this trip we also dined at the fabulous China Grill (www.china-grillmgt.com) at 60 West 53rd Street, which happens to be the birthplace of this extraordinary dining spot. In 1987 China Grill New York opened to a packed dining room and immediate critical acclaim. By its fifth anniversary, the restaurant was as busy as ever and regarded as one of the hottest destination spots in New York City. Jewish owner Jeffrey Chodorow's labor of love, his first and only venture into the restaurant world, had proven to be an enduring success in a scene where restaurants seemed to come and go overnight. Over 20 years later, China Grill Management and its affiliates continue to produce some of the most original, critically acclaimed and wildly popular dining hotspots in major cities across the globe. CGM and its affiliates own, operate, create concepts, and /or consult in creating some of the most acclaimed and and innovative restaurants in Miami, New York, London, Mexico City and now Dubai. We experienced the China Grill in Miami five years ago and were excited to get a reservation in the Big Apple.

Virtually every dish at China Grill is prepared on the grill or in a wok, using sauces strictly for flavor. Portions are generous, and artfully presented on bold, oversized plates, and above all, meant for sharing. China Grill is not just a meal, it is an experience. We thoroughly enjoyed every morsel of You can call 514-212-333-7788 for reservations.

The Democratic side still remains fairly quiet. That's because the assumption is that Hillary Rodham Clinton will easily win her party's nomination and that the funds will be needed more for the presidential campaign itself. Among her supporters are Hollywood cartoon billionaire Haim Saban and film music mogul David Geffen.

The Republican race for donors, however, is in full stride and the fight for funds is intense. Norman Braman, who has made his fortune in car dealerships and once owned the Philadelphia Eagles, has reportedly agreed to spend up to $15 million in support of Florida Senator Marco Rubio. New York hedge fund manager Paul Singer has thrown a fundraiser for Rubio but has not yet committed to him. Las Vegas casino mogul Sheldon Adelson can also
