HELPFUL HINTS FOR THE JEWISH TRAVELLER

By MIKE COHEN

NEW JERSEY'S WILDWOODS: It is always exciting for my family and me to explore a brand new vacation spot. After experiencing Myrtle Beach, South Carolina for the first time in 2015, we decided to follow this up with the Wildwoods in New Jersey (www.WildwoodsNJ.com). As usual, we got an early start at securing reservations, doing so many months in advance of a July visit. It's something we highly recommend.

WHERE TO STAY: We were fortunate to get reservations at The Adventurer Ocean Inn (www.

AdventurerInn.com), which I can confidently say is probably the nicest hotel in all of the Wildwoods. This is truly an oceanfront location, which has everything that your family or group needs to relax and unwind at the beach. You can wake up to the sounds of the ocean, watch the sun rise from an ocean view or oceanfront balcony, enjoy breakfast in their oceanfront restaurant or simply bask in the sun at the beach or at the pool area. From this location, you can stroll to the beach, the but by taking so many traditional Democratic votes away from Truman, the Jewish vote in effect gave the state to Governor Dewey. That, in turn, brought the Republican candidate within a hair of winning the election.

Whether a significant number of Jewish voters would have supported a third party candidate in this year's race is hard to say. No doubt there is dissatisfaction among some Jews with regard to both Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump, although the issues that drove Jewish voters from Truman to Wallace are not so clear cut this time around. In any event, the 1948 contest reminds us that any time a presidential race is close in states such as New York, California, or Florida, the Jewish vote could play a significant role in determining the outcome.

Boardwalk and waterparks, and the Wildwoods Convention Center. It comes complete with a cardio room, convention/meeting rooms, Southern exposure outdoor pool and kiddie pool, and free outdoor and garage parking on the premises.

We felt right at home at The Adventurer Ocean Inn the moment we arrived. This hotel features some of the largest and cleanest two, three and four room suites in the Wildwoods. Upgrades are done each off-season. They used to close from October until May. But given the increased activity at the Convention Centre, their opening date has been moved up next winter to February. We had a very comfortable two-room suite, which had a king size and double bed in one area. This was separated by a sliding accordion door, opening up to a nice sized living room/full kitchen with a pullout sofa bed, a sitting chair and a table with five chairs, ideal for meals. It also became my "go to" spot to do work on my computer.

pool merits special praise. There are plenty of chairs and umbrellas. You just give your room number and you will receive some nice sized towels for the day. We particularly appreciated the covered outdoor lounging area with an adjacent sun-deck at the second level, with some very comfortable couches. There is WiFi pool-side so we could enjoy our different devices. At pool level there is an enclosed oceanfront lounge/meeting area, which connects to the beach. It also has tables to eat at, a TV to watch and washrooms.

The front office staff are extremely friendly and helpful. They will steer you in the direction of different tourist attractions. The reception area has an endless array of tourism flyers and booklets from which to choose. There is a business centre with two computers and two printers.

The Adventurer Pancake House and Family Restaurant is located on the first floor on the oceanfront side of the building. It has been privately run by the same family for the past two decades.

The hotel is located at the beginning of the Boardwalk, which has shops, eateries and arcades, The rides are far enough away from the Boardwalk, so you do not hear any noise. Coin-operated laundry and ironing facilities are available on site. Groups can take advantage of a Penthouse convention/meeting room. There elevators on each side of the building, complimentary cribs and cots and daily housekeeping service. There is a large Acme Supermarket only a few blocks away from the hotel so we were able to do a full order to stock the fridge when we arrived and go back and forth during the week to pickup other items. The store actually has some kosher products on its shelves.

All of the 113 rooms are non-smoking and have individual climate control(s), private balconies, telephone(s) with automated voice mail, free wireless internet access, refrigerators and microwaves, an in-room safe, flat screen TVs, hair dryers and toiletries, iron and ironing boards, kitchens, coffee pot, a two burner stove, pots and pans, dishes and silverware and a toaster.

This a fabulous family location and from speaking with many of the guests, they come back year after year. In fact many book
